PROFILE

Senior Art Director & Graphic Designer with 13+ years of experience across brand identity, retail, packaging, editorial, digital design and visual communication.

I work from idea and concept to finished production and enjoy the combination of creative development and structured execution. I am experienced in turning complex briefs, large amounts of information and multiple visual requirements into clear, consistent design systems that work across real formats and customer touchpoints.

I am comfortable taking ownership of the full process — from brief, client dialogue and design development to artwork, coordination, quality assurance and final delivery.
